

Kanak Srivastava v. State of U.P. and others

Allahabad High Court · Division Bench · 21 May 2025 · 2025:AHC:85769-DB · WRIT - C No. - 16406 of 2025 · Clause 6.5 order quashed; remanded for fresh hearing.

HEADNOTE

An order under Clause 6.5 of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005, passed without hearing the consumer is liable to be quashed. On the licensee's concession, the High Court set aside the Executive Engineer's order and directed the consumer to appear on a fixed date so that a fresh order could be passed after opportunity of hearing and consideration of the material produced. Prayers to quash the bills and for meter correction or a new supply were not decided on merits.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Kanak Srivastava challenged the Executive Engineer, Purvanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Limited's order dated 25.03.2025 under Clause 6.5 of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005, together with electricity bills, and sought correction of dues and the meter plus a new meter and supply in her name. She alleged the Clause 6.5 order, though passed pursuant to an earlier High Court direction, was made without hearing. The Power Corporation agreed to fix a date and pass a fresh order after due opportunity.
