

Manoj Kumar Sinha v. State of U.P. and 2 Others

Allahabad High Court · Division Bench · 11 June 2026 · Writ - C No. 23559 of 2026 · Writ disposed of; petitioner relegated to Clause 6.5; no disconnection for ten days

HEADNOTE

A consumer who challenges an electricity bill as exaggerated, and seeks a writ quashing the bill and restraining disconnection, is relegated to the competent authority under Clause 6.5 of the Supply Code. If he applies under Clause 6.5 after completing the formalities within ten days, the application is to be considered and decided in accordance with law. For those ten days the licensee shall not disconnect. The Court does not examine the bill.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Manoj Kumar Sinha challenged an electricity bill of Rs.2,25,470 as exaggerated. He asked that it be quashed and that officers of Purvanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Ltd. be restrained from disconnecting his connection. The Court treated the grievance as one against an electricity bill and pointed him to Clause 6.5. No other facts about load, consumption, or prior representation were recorded.
