

Mohd Hameed v. State of Uttar Pradesh

Allahabad High Court · Division Bench · 10 August 2026 · Writ-C No. 26252 of 2026 · Writ disposed of; petitioner relegated to Clause 6.5

HEADNOTE

Where supply has already been restored after a 50 per cent deposit, remaining allegations of incorrect bills and repeated disconnections are to be raised as a comprehensive dispute under Clause 6.5 of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005. The writ is disposed of without examining the bills.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Mohd Hameed sought a writ directing reconnection. On 6 August 2026 the Court recorded that the supply company had demanded a 50 per cent deposit for restoration; payment was said to have been made, but the connection was not restored. On 10 August 2026, counsel for respondent nos. 2 to 5 (the supply company) submitted that the connection had been restored. Petitioner then alleged incorrect billing and repeated disconnections over a long period, claiming 75 per cent of the demand had already been paid. The licensee's counsel disputed that account.
