HEADNOTE

On a Section 482 CrPC application to quash a bailable warrant in a Section 138(1)(b) Electricity Act prosecution, the Allahabad High Court granted time for a counter-affidavit, listed the matter, and directed that no coercive action be taken against the applicant meanwhile. The plea that Clause 8.1 of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005 was not followed during the raid was recorded but not decided.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Ashok Kumar sought to quash a bailable warrant dated 17 January 2024 issued by the Additional Sessions Judge/FTC-I, Chandauli in Electricity Case No. 815 of 2023 under Section 138(1)(b) of the Electricity Act, 2003. The department's 27 October 2020 inspection alleged that after disconnection for unpaid dues he had illegally tapped supply from the pole, and an FIR was lodged the next day. Counsel argued that Clause 8.1 of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005 was not followed during the raid.
