HEADNOTE

A consumer's writ against Dakshinanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Limited, in which counsel was given liberty to place judgments on Clause 4.49 of the Electricity Supply Code, 2005, was kept pending. After holding that the matter required consideration and directing exchange of affidavits, the Allahabad High Court listed the petition from date to date, took it out of the top-ten list, and last listed it for 10 August 2026. Construction of Clause 4.49 and the merits of the writ were not decided.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Ratan Industries Limited filed Writ-C No. 22524 of 2024 against Dakshinanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Limited and another. The Division Bench directed the licensee to take instructions (31 July 2024) and granted the petitioner liberty to place judgments on Clause 4.49 of the Electricity Supply Code, 2005 (13 September 2024). On 21 October 2024 the Court held that the writ required consideration and directed exchange of affidavits. Counter and rejoinder of respondent No. 1 were taken on record on 2 December 2024; those of respondent No. 2 on 27 February 2025, with notes of argument directed. The petition was then adjourned from date to date, taken out of the top-ten list on 10 November 2025, and last listed for 10 August 2026 on the petitioner's prayer. The orders do not recite the connection, bill, or the precise Clause 4.49 dispute.
