

Ram Das v. State of U.P.

Allahabad High Court · Division Bench · 20 September 2011 · WRIT - C No. 54701 of 2011 · Writ disposed; 50% deposit then departmental representation with hearing.

HEADNOTE

A recovery certificate issued in section 135 theft proceedings was challenged for want of a clause 8.1(b)(iii) hearing. The Division Bench disposed of the writ at admission, directing a 50% deposit within one month, after which the consumer may represent to the authority, who shall hear and pass a reasoned order within a further month. On deposit, coercive action stays until a week after that order is communicated.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Ram Das challenged a recovery certificate issued against him by the Uttar Pradesh electricity authorities, alleging that no opportunity of hearing had been afforded as required by clause 8.1(b)(iii) of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005. The High Court was informed that the recovery flowed from theft-of-electricity proceedings under section 135 of the Electricity Act, 2003. The writ was heard and disposed of at the admission stage.
