

Kanpur Electricity Supply Co. Ltd. v. Permanent Lok Adalat

High Court of Judicature at Allahabad · Single Judge · 21 October 2013 · Writ - C No. 49629 of 2013 · Stay of 6.9(B)(i) bill direction; writ dismissed for want of prosecution

HEADNOTE

KESCO challenged a Permanent Lok Adalat order setting aside an inspection report and directing a bill under clause 6.9(B)(i) of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005, arguing the Lok Adalat had no jurisdiction to adjudicate a complaint without offering settlement. The High Court stayed that billing direction till the next listing. The writ was later dismissed for want of prosecution.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Kanpur Electricity Supply Company Ltd. challenged a Permanent Lok Adalat order dated 12 June 2013 which set aside an inspection report of 11 October 2012 and directed preparation of a bill under clause 6.9(B)(i) of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005. The licensee argued that the Lok Adalat had no jurisdiction to adjudicate a complaint and that no settlement had been offered, relying on LIC of India v. Suresh Kumar. After an interim stay of the billing direction, the writ was dismissed for want of prosecution.
