

Ranveer Singh v. Powergrid Corporation of India Ltd.

High Court of Judicature at Allahabad · Division Bench · 12 February 2013 · WRIT - C No. - 7737 of 2013 · Writ disposed; respondent No. 2 directed to examine the grievance and take steps in accordance with the Electricity Supply Code, 2005 within four weeks.

HEADNOTE

On a complaint that Powergrid was erecting a transmission line over the petitioner's land without consent or permission, the Allahabad High Court disposed of the writ by directing respondent No. 2 to look into the grievance and take immediate steps in accordance with the Electricity Supply Code, 2005, within four weeks of communication of the order.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Ranveer Singh approached the Allahabad High Court alleging that Powergrid Corporation of India Ltd. was erecting a transmission line over Khasara Plot Nos. 481 (0.4390 hectare) and 483 (1.3630 hectares) of Village Validpur, Pargana Daurala, Tehsil Sardhana, District Meerut, aggregating 1.8020 hectare, belonging to the petitioners. He contended that neither his consent nor the permission of respondent No. 2 had been obtained for drawing the line over that land.
