HEADNOTE

A consumer who disputes the accuracy of an electricity bill and challenges recovery of alleged outstanding dues has a remedy under clause 6.5(b) of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005 by complaint to the competent authority. Disputed questions of fact being involved, the High Court declined to examine the bill on merits, granted liberty to complain under clause 6.5(b) within one week, directed the authority to decide within two weeks, and kept recovery in abeyance for four weeks or until that decision, whichever was earlier.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Anil Sharma, an electricity consumer, petitioned the High Court of Judicature at Allahabad against recovery proceedings started by U.P. Power Corporation Limited for alleged outstanding dues. He challenged the correctness of the bill on which the recovery rested and sought to have those proceedings set aside. Counsel for the Corporation appeared. The dispute was confined to the accuracy of the billed amount; no other statutory challenge was framed.
