

Ramashrey v. Chandresh Upadhyay

High Court of Judicature at Allahabad · Single Judge · 14 August 2018 · Contempt Application (Civil) No. 4218 of 2018 · Contempt disposed; two months further time to decide the clause 6.5 objection.

HEADNOTE

On a civil contempt application for non-decision of an objection under clause 6.5 of the Electricity Supply Code, 2005, as directed in Writ Petition No. 7104 of 2018, the Court recorded a prima facie case of willful disobedience of the 28 February 2018 order, issued no notice, granted two months further time to comply, and disposed of the application with liberty to re-approach if the objection remained undecided. The billing dispute was not decided.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Ramashrey had filed Writ Petition No. 7104 of 2018 challenging orders dated 29.8.2017 and 3.11.2017. On 28.2.2018 the High Court declined to quash those orders but directed respondent no. 2 to decide the petitioner's 13.2.2018 objection under clause 6.5 of the Electricity Supply Code, 2005, preferably within six weeks of production of a certified copy. Alleging that despite service no decision had been taken, the consumer filed this civil contempt application against Chandresh Upadhyay.
