

Digvijay Singh v. Purvanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Ltd.

High Court of Judicature at Allahabad · Division Bench · 5 July 2019 · Writ-C No. 21318 of 2019 · WRIT - C No. 21318 of 2019 · Writ disposed; deposit processing fee, then process application in accordance with law.

HEADNOTE

Under clause 4.4 of the Electricity Supply Code, 2005, a new-connection application is processed only after the processing fee is deposited. Where the petitioner could not show that the fee had been paid, the High Court disposed of the writ by directing deposit within one week and, on deposit, processing of the application in accordance with law within two weeks, with connection to be granted only if necessary.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Digvijay Singh applied to Purvanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Ltd. on 20 September 2018 for an electricity connection. The application was not processed. He approached the Allahabad High Court, alleging that despite repeated visits to the Executive Engineer no connection had been granted. Counsel for the Nigam, on instructions, stated that clause 4.4 of the Electricity Supply Code, 2005 required the processing fee to be deposited before the application could be processed. The petitioner could not show that the fee had been paid.
