HEADNOTE

On a writ seeking restoration on record of a paper-disconnected supply and mutation of a connection still standing in a deceased father's name, the Allahabad High Court directed paper restoration if the outstanding bill of Rs 28,536 dated 10 October 2019 was paid within three weeks. The application for change of name or transfer was left to be considered under clause 4.44 of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005, in accordance with law, within six weeks of production of a certified copy. Allegations of unauthorized use and the merits of the bill were not decided.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

The petitioner, appearing in person, complained of poor line and transformer maintenance in his locality, sought restoration on record of a connection against which a Rs 28,536 bill had been issued and deposit refused, and asked that the connection still standing in his deceased father's name be mutated to him. The licensee placed instructions of unauthorized use, a 10 October 2019 disconnection notice, and paper disconnection after three unpaid billing cycles, but said a new transformer had been installed and the petitioner was still receiving supply.
