

Prahlad Singh v. State of U.P. and another

Allahabad High Court · Division Bench · 20 March 2018 · Writ-C No. 10133 of 2018 · Writ allowed; demand notice dated 8 January 2018 quashed; reasoned final assessment directed after objections.

HEADNOTE

A provisional assessment notice under Clause 6.8(b) of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005 must specify the date and time for hearing and disclose the basis of the assessed amount. A demand founded on a notice that does neither is not in accordance with law; the consumer is not afforded the opportunity Clause 6.8(b) requires, and the demand is liable to be quashed, with a reasoned final assessment to follow after considering the consumer's objections.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Prahlad Singh challenged a demand notice dated 8 January 2018 for Rs.2,25,688. He said he never received the provisional assessment notice, could not reply, and the corporation treated the assessment as final and issued a recovery certificate. Counsel undertook to file objections within two weeks and argued that Clause 6.8(b)(1) of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005 required the notice itself to fix a date for hearing. The Court examined the provisional assessment order on the record.

REUSABLE CONSTRUCTIONS

1. A provisional assessment notice under Clause 6.8(b) of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005 must itself specify the date and time for hearing so that the consumer can appear. ¶ 4-5, 7-8
2. The notice must also disclose the basis on which the assessed amount is arrived at; a demand resting on a notice that does neither is not in accordance with law and is liable to be quashed. ¶ 7-9
