

Meenu Gupta v. State of U.P.

Allahabad High Court · Division Bench · 31 January 2018 · WRIT - C No. 3872 of 2018 · WRIT - C No. 3872 of 2018 ·
Writ allowed; recovery citation quashed; fresh provisional assessment directed.

HEADNOTE

A theft-case provisional assessment notice that neither fixes a date of hearing nor discloses the basis of the assessed amount does not afford the opportunity required by para 6.8(b) of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005. A recovery citation issued on such a notice, without a final assessment considering the consumer's pending objection, is quashed. The licensee must serve a fresh provisional assessment and pass a reasoned final assessment after considering objections, following Ashok Kumar.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

After a vigilance inspection, an FIR dated 28 October 2017 was lodged against the petitioner under Section 135A of the Electricity Act for running a guest house. A provisional assessment of Rs.21,73,733 dated 28 October 2017 followed. The petitioner objected on 25 November 2017. Without a final assessment, a demand dated 7 December 2017 for Rs.14,89,071 and a recovery citation dated 12/15 January 2018 were issued. The petitioner sought quashing of the citation, saying the objection remained pending and the provisional notice fixed no hearing date.

REUSABLE CONSTRUCTIONS

1. A provisional assessment notice in a theft case must specify a date of hearing so the consumer can appear; a notice that does not is not in accordance with para 6.8(b) of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005. ¶ 1
2. A provisional assessment notice must also disclose the basis on which the assessed amount was computed; silence on the basis, together with no hearing date, denies the adequate opportunity para 6.8(b) requires. ¶ 1
3. Where the provisional assessment itself is unlawful, a recovery citation founded on a later demand issued without a final assessment considering the consumer's pending objection is liable to be quashed, with a direction to issue a fresh provisional assessment and a reasoned final assessment after considering objections. ¶ 1
