SCJ-098 Palika Towns LLP v. State of U.P. & 2 Others	Petitioner	Distinguished	Electricity arrears do not constitute a charge over the property (following Isha Marbles); a transferee cannot be made liable for a predecessor's electricity dues absent a specific enabling clause (such as Clause 21A considered in Paramount Polymers) in the terms and conditions of supply authorising such recovery from a purchaser.	Surveyed as part of the settled electricity-dues transferee-liability position; held of no assistance to the petitioner here since the lease deed did contain an express first-charge stipulation (unlike the absence of such a clause in the electricity context there).

SCJ-031 Haryana State Electricity Board v. M/s Hanuman Rice Mills, Dhanauri & Ors.	Court	Relied on	Electricity dues are not a charge on the premises, but a distributor may stipulate, as a condition of a fresh connection, that the previous occupant's arrears be cleared; if statutory rules govern, they bind the purchaser. Provisions similar to Clause 4.3(g) and (h) of the Electricity Supply Code are necessary to safeguard the distributor.	Relied on and quoted for the arrears/transferee synthesis. 8
SCJ-098 Palika Towns LLP v. State of U.P. & 2 Others	Court	Followed	Electricity dues do not constitute a charge on the premises and a transferee cannot be foisted with a predecessor's dues merely by virtue of ownership; however, a distributor may validly stipulate, as a condition for a fresh connection/reconnection, that the predecessor's arrears be cleared first — such a stipulation (e.g. Clause 4.3(g)/(h) of a Supply Code) is not unreasonable or arbitrary and safeguards the distributor against unscrupulous defaulters absconding to new premises.	Surveyed and applied by analogy to hold that a specific stipulation (here, the lease deed's first-charge clause) can validly bind a purchaser to a predecessor's arrears, even outside the electricity context.
SCJ-125 Smt. Pawan Jha @ Priya Jha v. State of U.P. And Others	Court	Followed	Arrears of electricity dues attach to the premises/connection and may condition a fresh connection to a subsequent transferee, subject to equitable relief. SCJ-100 Paschimanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Ltd. v. Raman Ispat Private Limited & Ors.	Petitioner (PVVNL)	Distinguished	A statutory first-charge provision (s.48, Gujarat VAT Act) makes the State a 'secured creditor' under the IBC, since the definition of 'secured creditor' does not exclude government/statutory charges; a resolution plan excluding such dues is not IBC-compliant and not binding on the State.	Distinguished and confined to its facts — did not consider or apply the s.53 waterfall mechanism, arose in a resolution-plan (not liquidation) context, and cannot be extended to give government/quasi-government dues priority over the deliberately structured s.53 hierarchy.

SCJ-114 Saurabh Agrawal & Another v. State of U.P. & Others	Court	Followed	Clause 5.6(c)(iii) requires the consumer's agreement for the choice of testing laboratory (licensee's/independent/Electrical Inspector); this being a harsh provision against the consumer must be construed strictly, and failure to apprise the consumer of this right renders the meter-sealing/testing proceedings irregular and illegal.	Applied (quoting para 6) to reinforce that non-compliance with the meter-testing consumer-rights procedure vitiates the proceedings.
SCJ-126 Smt. Vimla Tiwari v. State of U.P. And Others	Court	Followed	A meter alleged to be missing, defective, or tampered must be tested/verified per Clause 5.6 before an assessment premised on that allegation is finalised.	Followed as part of this corpus's Clause 5.6 meter-testing line.

SCJ-153 Mohd. Sagir v. Dakshinanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Ltd. & Ors.	Petitioner	Followed	Clause 5.6(c)(iii) requires the licensee to apprise the consumer of, and obtain his agreement to, the testing venue (licensee's lab / independent lab / Electrical Inspector) before a sealed meter is tested; the clause operates harshly and is construed strictly, and failure to give a bold, printed notice of the option renders the proceedings illegal.	Followed and applied; the Court held the law it lays down fully supports the petitioner. Noted that the licensee's SLP against Amrawati Devi was dismissed by the Supreme Court on 3/8/2009. SCJ-069 M/S Trikoot Iron & Steels Castings Ltd. v. State of U.P. & Ors.	Petitioner	Followed	Assessment under Section 126 is also to be made in theft cases, and the consumer has a right of appeal.	Followed. para 7
SCJ-111 Sandeep Kesarwani v. State of U.P. & 3 Others	Petitioner	Distinguished	Sections 126 and 135 of the 2003 Act operate in different, distinct fields with no common premise in law — s.126 covers unauthorised use even absent dishonest intent (a civil-law remedy without mens rea), while s.135 requires dishonest intent and falls within criminal jurisprudence; s.126 is intended to cover cases 'over and above' those specifically covered by s.135.	Distinguished from the petitioner's reading — clarified that the 'different fields' holding does not mean s.126 assessment is barred wherever s.135 also applies; rather, both provisions can and do operate concurrently on overlapping conduct.
SCJ-111 Sandeep Kesarwani v. State of U.P. & 3 Others	Respondent	Followed	Theft of electricity under s.135 is also 'unauthorised use of electricity' for which assessment under s.126 is contemplated and mandatory; the s.135(1A) third proviso (restoration on payment of the 'assessed amount') presupposes a s.126 assessment; a Supply Code procedural provision cannot take away the substantive s.127 right of appeal.	Followed as the controlling Division Bench precedent (with one member common to the present Bench).
SCJ-111 Sandeep Kesarwani v. State of U.P. & 3 Others	Respondent	Followed	Use of electricity through a tampered meter constitutes 'unauthorised use of electricity' under s.126 Explanation (b), for which assessment can be made, while simultaneously constituting theft under s.135(1)(d), permitting parallel criminal proceedings.	Followed for the overlapping-but-parallel operation of ss.126 and 135.
SCJ-122 Shyam Ferrous Ltd. Gopal Nagar v. State of U.P. & 6 Others	Court	Distinguished	Applied Clause 6.15/s.56(2)'s two-year limitation to bar recovery of a peak-hour penalty imposed in 2006 for a 2002-2003 violation period.	Distinguished as having been decided without the benefit of the later Kusumam Hotels ruling (16.5.2008), which was not brought to that Division Bench's attention; its correctness on the broader s.56(2) scope question left open for a future case.

SCJ-090 Narendra Singh Panwar v. Pashchimanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Ltd. & 2 Others	Petitioner	Distinguished	Once a liquidation order is passed against a Corporate Debtor, the District Collector cannot separately recover/auction the Corporate Debtor's property for electricity dues under ss.173/174 of the Electricity Act, 2003, since IBC (a later Parliamentary Act) overrides; the electricity authority's remedy is to file a claim before the liquidator.	Relied on by the petitioner as squarely applicable, but distinguished — that ruling concerned recovery from the Corporate Debtor's own assets/estate, not a Director's independent personal-guarantee liability.
