Court No. - 29

HON'BLE ARINDAM SINHA, J.
HON'BLE SATYA VEER SINGH, J.

1. Mr. Arun Mishra, learned advocate appears on behalf of petitioner. Prayer (i) in the writ petition is reproduced below.

"i) Issue a writ of Mandamus commanding respondent No. 2 to generate one bill from 31.03.2010 (when the bill was finally paid) to date on the basis of reading of all meters removed and current reading in the current meter, taking the connection as Domestic (in place of commercial) and without surcharge giving benefit of Clause 6.5 (b) (i) of the UP Electricity Supply Code, 2005."

He draws attention to communication dated 29th March, 2025 to submit, the supply company admitted that his client's meter was wrongly classified. He submits, domestic consumption was converted to commercial and there was excess billing. Hence, prayer for generating one bill and reliance on the provision in the Code.

2. Mr. R.K. Mishra, learned advocate, holding the brief, appears for respondents (the supply company) and submits, he has instructions to explain the alleged anomaly. The supply company will file counter to be accepted on adjourned date, upon advance copy served.

3. List on 21st August, 2026 as fresh.
