

Mohd. Kasim v. Paschimanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Ltd.

Allahabad High Court · Division Bench · 21 January 2015 · WRIT - C No. - 2052 of 2015 · Writ disposed; EE to decide fresh application in accordance with law.

HEADNOTE

After acquittal in a criminal electricity-theft case, the consumer invoked clause 8.2(x) of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005 for withdrawal of charges and restoration of supply. The High Court did not apply the clause on merits. By consent it disposed of the writ, directing the Executive Engineer, Chandausi, to consider and decide a fresh application by a reasoned speaking order in accordance with law, preferably within six weeks.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

The petitioner was alleged to have committed theft of electricity and a criminal case was instituted against him. The trial court acquitted him. Invoking clause 8.2(x) of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005, he sought withdrawal of the charges and restoration of his connection. He had already made representations to the Executive Engineer, Electricity Distribution Division, Chandausi, District Sambhal, which remained undecided. He then filed this writ petition against Paschimanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Ltd.
