Hon'ble Krishna Murari, J.

Hon'ble Pratyush Kumar, J.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned A.G.A. for the State as well as Sri Nripendra Mishra, counsel for the complainant.

Petitioner has approached this Court with a request to quash the First Information Report dated 17.01.2015 registered as Case Crime No. 13 of 2015 under Sections 135 and 138 of Electricity Act, Police Station Mundali, District Meerut.

This Court has the occasion to peruse the F.I.R. and the F.I.R. in question does disclose a cognizable offence, in view of this, there is no occasion for this Court to quash the F.I.R., as has been prayed on behalf of petitioner, as such, prayer made on the said score is refused by this Court.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contended that the offence in question, as has been alleged to have been committed by the petitioner, is under Section 135 of the Electricity Act and for the same even if the charges are found to be proved sentence of more than 7 years cannot be awarded and, in view of this, mechanically arrest should not be effectuated by the police personnel. Learned counsel for the petitioner next contended that the offence in question, as has been alleged to have been committed by the petitioner, is compoundable also.

The fact of the matter is that till date arrest has not been effectuated and this is mere apprehension of the petitioner that he would be arrested in breach of provisions as contained under Section 41(1)(b) read with Section 41-A of the Cr.P.C. Once there is statutory provision provided for, then it is always expected that the said provisions would be adhered to and, in case, there is any violation of the same, complaint can also be made before the Magistrate concerned to remedy the situation and if petitioner's offence is compoundable, he may seek his remedy as provided under the provisions of Electricity Supply Code, 2005.

In view of above, it is hereby directed that, in case, arrest of petitioner is to be effectuated and the offence, in which he is wanted, will not entail sentence of more than 7 years, then in that event, concerned police personnel should deal with the matter in compliance of the provisions as contained under Section 41(1)(b) read with Section 41-A of the Cr.P.C.

Writ petition stands disposed of.
