HEADNOTE

Mandamus to compel a prepaid connection was refused where the licensee had denied supply because of a premises dispute. The consumer was relegated to a representation/complaint under Clause 7(1)(3) of the Uttar Pradesh Electricity Supply Code, 2005, to be decided preferably within 30 days of filing.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Smt. Sushma Devi sought a mandamus directing respondents 3 and 4 to grant her a prepaid electric connection forthwith. By order dated 23 June 2018, the Up Khand Adhikari had refused the connection, holding that a dispute existed regarding the premises and that supply could not therefore be given to the alleged premises. She challenged that refusal in the High Court. Counsel for the Electricity Department and the Standing Counsel were heard.
