

Court No. - 37

Case :- WRIT - C No. - 23469 of 2012

Petitioner :- Rajveer Sharma

Respondent :- State Of U.P. Thru Secy. And Others

Petitioner Counsel :- Arvind Agrawal

Respondent Counsel :- C.S.C.,Rajesh Tripathi

Hon'ble Sunil Ambwani,J.

Hon'ble Aditya Nath Mittal,J.

We have heard Shri Arvind Agrawal, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner. Shri Dharmendra Srivastava appears for the respondent nos. 4 and 5.

The petitioner is aggrieved by the demand of recovery of Rs. 60, 614/- as arrears of electricity dues, which the petitioner has not paid for consuming the electricity for running a welding shop.

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner states that there was some faults in the meter, which were not corrected in time, but that the petitioner is ready to pay the amount, if the Court fixes some easy instalments.

The petitioner has not annexed any bill, which he may have paid or any representation, which he may have made for correcting the meter.

The electricity bills are to be paid as soon as they become due on the date fixed in accordance with the provisions of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005.

If the petitioner still disputes the bill, it is always open to him to approach the Executive Engineer, Electricity Distribution Division, Firozabad, to consider his grievance under Para 6.5 of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005, or to approach the Electricity Consumers Redressal Commission.

The writ petition is dismissed.
