

Ram Lakhan Singh v. State of U.P.

High Court of Judicature at Allahabad · Division Bench · 10 April 2013 · Writ-C No. 19196 of 2013 · Petition disposed; deposit ₹30,000 for restoration; representation under Clauses 6.14 and 6.5.

HEADNOTE

A consumer who accepted electricity charges but whose supply stood disconnected was directed, without a merits adjudication, to deposit ₹30,000 within a month. On deposit the connection is to be restored without delay after formalities, and the pending representation is to be considered expeditiously under Clause 6.14 read with Clause 6.5 of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Ram Lakhan Singh petitioned the Allahabad High Court after disconnection of his electricity supply. Counsel submitted that he had accepted liability for the electricity charges, yet the connection remained cut off. Counsel for the Vidyut Nigam and the Standing Counsel were heard. The Court was not asked to recount the arrears, billing history, or date of disconnection. The petitioner sought restoration and consideration of a representation already moved under the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005.
