HOLDING

A writ challenging correction of an electricity bill on the ground that a different connection number has been written in the bill is not entertained on merits; the consumer has a remedy of applying under clause 6.5 of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005, and if that application is filed the concerned authority is to pass an appropriate order within six weeks of production of a certified copy of the Court's order. ¶ 1

NOT DECIDED — NEGATIVE AUTHORITY

NOT DECIDED — WHETHER A DIFFERENT CONNECTION NUMBER WAS IN FACT WRITTEN IN THE ELECTRICITY BILL AND WHETHER THE BILL REQUIRED CORRECTION

The Court did not examine the bill on merits and relegated the petitioner to clause 6.5. ¶ 1
