

Mohd. Tahir v. State of U.P.

Allahabad High Court · Division Bench · 24 July 2014 · Writ-C No. 37957 of 2014 · Writ dismissed; petitioner relegated to clause 6.5.

HEADNOTE

A challenge to the validity of an electricity bill is to be raised under clause 6.5 of the Electricity Supply Code, 2005, which is a self-contained code; the writ petition is dismissed so that the petitioner may avail that mechanism.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Mohd. Tahir invoked the writ jurisdiction of the Allahabad High Court against the State of Uttar Pradesh and two others. In pith and substance the petition questioned the validity of an electricity bill that had been raised against him. No concluded determination under the Electricity Supply Code, 2005 was placed before the Court. The Division Bench of V.K. Shukla and Shashi Kant, JJ. heard the petition on 24 July 2014 and disposed of it the same day.
