

Smt. Ayesha v. State of U.P.

Allahabad High Court · Division Bench · 23 March 2017 · Writ - C No. 12190 of 2017 · Writ dismissed; petitioner to avail Clause 6.5 remedy.

HEADNOTE

A writ petition disputing the amount charged in electricity bills is not entertained where Clause 6.5 of the Electricity Supply Code, 2005 supplies a statutory alternative remedy. The Division Bench declined to hear Smt. Ayesha's petition and dismissed it on that ground.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Smt. Ayesha filed Writ-C No. 12190 of 2017 in the Allahabad High Court against the State of Uttar Pradesh and five others, including the respondent electricity corporation. She disputed the amount charged by the corporation in the bills issued to her. The short order does not record the consumer number, sanctioned load, billing period, or the quantum of the disputed demand. Counsel for the corporation appeared and was heard.
