

M/s Maa Vindhyavasini Stone Works v. Dakshinanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Ltd.

Allahabad High Court · Division Bench · 3 July 2015 · Writ-C No. 36283 of 2015 · Writ dismissed; bill and recovery relegated to clause 6.5(b).

HEADNOTE

A writ is not the proper remedy against electricity bills and a Section 3 recovery notice under the U.P. Government Electrical Undertaking (Recovery of Dues) Act, 1957, where quantification can be challenged under clause 6.5(b) of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005. A prior complaint that does not mention excessive demand does not establish a pending objection. A new-unit benefit claim may be raised in the 6.5(b) challenge.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

M/s Maa Vindhyavasini Stone Works challenged bills dated 3 October 2014 for Rs. 24,12,707 and a like demand notice under Section 3 of the U.P. Government Electrical Undertaking (Recovery of Dues) Act, 1957, issued by Dakshinanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Ltd. Counsel relied on a 10 July 2014 complaint as an objection to an excessive demand despite no consumption. The Court found that complaint did not mention any excessive demand. The petitioner also claimed benefit as a new unit.

HOLDING

Correctness of electricity bills and a recovery certificate under Section 3 of the U.P. Government Electrical Undertaking (Recovery of Dues) Act, 1957, may be challenged under clause 6.5(b) of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005. A writ petition is not the proper remedy. A new-unit benefit claim and grievance against the bills can be raised in that quantification challenge. ¶ 1
