

M/s Baba Cold Storage and Ice Factory v. DVVNL

High Court of Judicature at Allahabad · Division Bench · 30 August 2022 · Writ-C No. 26255 of 2010 · Writ dismissed as infructuous by efflux of time.

HEADNOTE

A consumer's writ invoking Electricity Supply Code para 4.16(c) against a direction to install an 11 kV oil circuit breaker—after an interim permission to install at its own cost, with a right to deduct that cost from bills if it succeeded—was dismissed as infructuous by efflux of time, without deciding who bore the installation liability.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

M/s Baba Cold Storage and Ice Factory, a DVVNL consumer, was directed to install an 11 kV oil circuit breaker at its premises. It had deposited the installation amount and pleaded that para 4.16(c) of the Electricity Supply Code put that liability on the licensee. It paid over Rs 1 lakh a month in electricity charges. On 18 May 2010 the High Court let it install the OCB at its own cost, subject to the writ, with a right to deduct the cost from bills if it succeeded. In 2022 counsel said the petition had become infructuous by efflux of time.
