

Court No. - 21

Case :- WRIT - C No. - 8015 of 2018

Petitioner :- M/S R.Ratansheet Grah Private Limited

Respondent :- State Of U.P. And 03 Others

Counsel for Petitioner :- Saurabh Yadav, Saurabh Yadav

Counsel for Respondent :- C.S.C., Baleshwar Chaturvedi

Hon'ble Krishna Murari, J.

Hon'ble Ajay Bhanot, J.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Mohd. Parvez, learned counsel for respondent nos. 2, 3 and 4.

It is contended on behalf of the petitioner that he did not receive the copy of the provisional assessment notice and it came to knowledge only after the recovery certificate was issued and, as such, he could not submit her reply and in absence whereof, the respondent treated it to be final and issued recovery certificate.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has invited our attention to the contents of the notice dated 25.08.2017 as well as the provisions contained under Clause 6.8(b) (1) of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005. The argument is that the respondent-corporation while issuing the provisional assessment notice was required to fix a date and time in the notice itself for hearing so that the consumer could appear before the authority concerned on the date and time so specified.

From the perusal of the assessment order, it does not appear that any date and time was indicated in the notice for hearing in the matter and in such circumstances, the contention of the petitioner that notice itself was not in accordance with the requirement of law, appears to have substance.

This Court in the case of Ashok Kumar & Ors. Vs. State of U.P. & Ors., 2008 (6) ADJ 660 (DB) from paras 56 to 64, has considered the provisions of the Electricity Supply Code 2005 to be followed in a case of theft of electricity for assessment.

In the present case, we find that provisional assessment notice does not give the basis on which petitioner was assessed to pay Rs. 2,06,20,064/-. The notice also does not specify the date and time for hearing, which was required under the Code.

In view of the fact that notice for provisional assessment issued to the petitioner itself was not in accordance with law, we are of the opinion that petitioner was not afforded adequate opportunity as provided in para 6.8(b) of U.P. Electricity Code, 2005.

Consequently, the writ petition is allowed. The impugned final assessment notice dated 25.08.2017 is hereby quashed. The respondents are directed to prepare a fresh provisional assessment order and serve the same upon the petitioner. The final assessment order shall be made after considering petitioner's objection and opportunity of hearing, giving reasons to meet the objections of petitioner in the light of observations made in the case of Ashok Kumar (supra).
