

Swati Kakkar v. Paschimanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Limited And Another

High Court of Judicature at Allahabad · Division Bench · 26 February 2018 · Writ-C No. 18103 of 2015 · Writ petition dismissed for non-exhaustion of Clauses 6.5 and 6.8 and CGRF/Ombudsman remedies.

HEADNOTE

A consumer who has received an assessment bill cannot maintain a writ without first disputing the bill under Clause 6.5 of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005, or, if the grievance is a wrong assessment, under Clause 6.8, and thereafter the statutory appeal, District Consumer Grievance Redressal Forum and Ombudsman. The petition was dismissed as misconceived on the ground of alternative remedy.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Swati Kakkar petitioned the Allahabad High Court against an assessment bill raised by Paschimanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Limited. On 2 April 2015 a Division Bench directed restoration of her electricity connection within twenty-four hours; the licensee later reported compliance. She contended that the bill had been issued without a show-cause notice, citing Ashok Kumar v. State of U.P. 2008 (6) ADJ 660. On final hearing the Court found she had not disputed the bill before the Code authorities.
