

Vipin Kalanamak Factory Pvt. Ltd. v. State of U.P. (demand notice / cl. 7.10 CGRF)

High Court of Judicature at Allahabad · Division Bench · 30 November 2018 · WRIT - C No. 39243 of 2018 · Writ disposed of; relegated to CGRF under clause 7.10

HEADNOTE

A writ seeking to quash an electricity demand notice and a Tehsildar recovery citation was disposed of on the alternative-remedy objection. Clause 7.10 of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005 gives the consumer a remedy before the Consumer Redressal Forum, including power to grant interim relief. Any complaint filed within 15 days was to be decided by a reasoned order within three months.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

The petitioner company challenged before the Allahabad High Court an 8 August 2018 notice of the Executive Engineer, Electricity Distribution Division, Modinagar, and a 31 October 2018 Tehsildar citation to appear at Modinagar, District Ghaziabad, seeking certiorari to quash both and a mandamus restraining recovery and coercive measures. Counsel for the distribution licensee submitted that the petitioner had a statutory remedy under clause 7.10 of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005 before the Consumer Redressal Forum, including power to grant an interim order.
