Court No. - 40

HON'BLE SARAL SRIVASTAVA, J.
HON'BLE SATYA VEER SINGH, J.

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the respondents.
2. The petitioner by means of the present writ petition has assailed the impugned Demand Notice dated 27.08.2020 and electric bill dated 29.10.2020.
3. Challenging the aforesaid demand notice, learned counsel for the petitioner has contended that impugned demand notice has been issued without application of mind and without giving any notice and opportunity of hearing to the petitioner which is in violation of principles of natural justice. In this respect, necessary averment has been made in paragraph no.18 of the writ petition. Accordingly, it is submitted that impugned demand notice is not sustainable in law and deserves to be set aside.
4. Per contra, learned counsel for the respondents submits that elaborate reasons have been given by the respondent no.2 while issuing the impugned demand notice Accordingly, he submits that the writ petition lacks merit and deserves to be dismissed.
5. Be that as it may, from the perusal of impugned demand notice, it is evident that no notice or opportunity of hearing was afforded to the petitioner by the respondent-authority before issuing the impugned demand notice Further, learned counsel for the respondents also could not demonstrate from the impugned notice that any notice or opportunity of hearing was afforded to the petitioner before passing issuing the impugned demand notice. The impugned notice also reflect that it is cryptic and non-speaking.

6. Since, the impugned demand notice has been issued without assigning any reason and without giving any notice and opportunity of hearing to the petitioner, therefore, the impugned demand notice being in violation of principles of natural justice cannot be sustained in law.

7. In view of the aforesaid facts, we dispose off the writ petition permitting the petitioner to file a detailed representation ventilating all his grievances against the impugned demand notice dated 27.08.2020 before the respondent no.3-Executive Engineer, Pashchimanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Ltd., Noida along with a certified copy of this order within a period of one month from today. In case any such representation is filed by the petitioner, the respondent no.3 shall consider and decide the same strictly in accordance with law after giving due notice and opportunity of hearing to the petitioner within a period of one months thereafter.

9. The impugned order shall abide by the orders to be passed by the respondent no.3 on the representation of the petitioner. In case, it is found that petitioner has made excess payment, the same shall be adjusted in future electricity bills.
