Learned counsel for the petitioner states that the prayer no.1 has been accepted by the State and, therefore, he is not pressing the prayer no.1.

However, if the petitioner is aggrieved by the fact that the bill is not being revised properly then he may approach the relevant authority under Clause 6.5 of the Uttar Pradesh Electricity Supply Code, 2005. Further, if the petitioner is of the view that the interest is to be waived off for the period when the wrong bill was issued, he may raise his grievance under the relevant Clause of the Code.

With these observations, the writ petition stands disposed of.
