The petitioners have prayed for a writ of mandamus commanding respondent no. 4 to decide their objections which they have filed disputing the correctness of the electricity bills.

Sri Baleshwar Chaturvedi, learned counsel for the respondent Electricity Department submits that respondent no. 4 is competent to decide the dispute under Clause 6.5 of the Electricity Supply Code 2005.

Accordingly, the petition is disposed of with direction to respondent no. 4 to decide the objections of the petitioners, served on the respondent Department on 15.10.2022, within four weeks from the date of production of a true attested copy of the instant order, along with photocopy of the objections.
