

Vijay Kumar Sachan v. State of U.P. And Another

Allahabad High Court · Division Bench · 4 April 2018 · AIRONLINE 2018 ALL 3033 · Application U/S 482 No. 11021 of 2018 · s.482 Cr.P.C. application dismissed; charge sheet not quashed

HEADNOTE

Not a Supply Code case — a s.482 Cr.P.C. quashing application by a retired electricity department Junior Engineer against a Prevention of Corruption Act disproportionate-assets charge sheet, applying the settled R.P. Kapur/Bhajan Lal/P.P. Sharma/Zandu Pharmaceutical framework confining s.482 quashing to cases where no offence is disclosed on the face of the record, and declining to adjudicate disputed factual defences (agricultural income, family gifts) at the quashing stage. Recorded compactly given the absence of any Supply Code nexus (the applicant's former employment as a Junior Engineer in the electricity distribution department is incidental background, not a subject of adjudication).

INTERPLAY · OFFTOPIC::disproportionate-assets-quashing-electricity-employee

A s.482 Cr.P.C. application to quash a disproportionate-assets charge sheet is dismissed where the defence (agricultural land income, family gifts explaining the excess assets) raises disputed questions of fact not resolvable at the quashing stage

HOLDING

Application dismissed. Applying R.P. Kapur v. State of Punjab, State of Haryana v. Bhajan Lal, State of Bihar v. P.P. Sharma, and Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. v. Mohd. Sharaful Haq, the Court held that at the s.482 stage only a prima facie case need be examined, and the applicant's explanations (agricultural income from family land, gifts from a retired father) for the alleged disproportionate assets (Rs. 31,66,841) were disputed questions of fact requiring evidence, not resolvable on a quashing application; the Court left it open to the applicant to raise his health condition (kidney ailment requiring dialysis) before the trial court in any future bail application. ¶ unnumbered order \(full text\)
