

Prabhat Kumar v. State of U.P.

Allahabad High Court, Lucknow Bench · Division Bench · 22 July 2025 · 2025:AHC-LKO:41763-DB · Writ-C No. 6726 of 2025 · Writ disposed of; petitioner relegated to prescribed remedies.

HEADNOTE

Mandamus to restrain the licensee from giving connections to others from the petitioner's private line and pole was not decided. After counsel stated that the petitioner's own connection had been disconnected, the writ was disposed of with liberty to approach the concerned authorities or seek remedies prescribed in law. The licensee's reliance on clause 4.29 of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005 was not adjudicated.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

Prabhat Kumar sought a mandamus restraining the distribution licensee and State energy authorities from giving electricity connections to other persons from his private electric line and pole on Khasra No. 119. Counsel for the Electricity Corporation relied on clause 4.29 of the U.P. Electricity Supply Code, 2005 as permitting such connections from the petitioner's installation. During hearing, the petitioner's counsel stated that the petitioner's own electricity connection had been disconnected.
