

M/s Shree Radhey Radhey Ispat (Pvt.) Ltd. v. Purvanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Ltd.

Allahabad High Court · Division Bench · 17 July 2012 · WRIT - C No. - 24474 of 2012 · Writ disposed of with 30-day direction to decide load-enhancement application; merits not examined.

HEADNOTE

Industrial consumer sought mandamus after delay on a 2009 application to raise contracted load from 1500 KVA to 2500 KVA, invoking Supply Code clause 4.43 timelines. Division Bench, by consent and without a counter-affidavit, directed the Chief Engineer, PuVVNL, Allahabad, to pass orders within 30 days of a certified copy, expressly without examining the merits of the claim.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

The petitioner industry had a sanctioned load of 1500 KVA. On 10 July 2009 it applied to enhance the contracted load to 2500 KVA. After the Superintending Engineer, Fatehpur, gave a technical feasibility report on 22 April 2012, no decision followed. Citing clause 4.43 of the Electricity Supply Code, 2005, the petitioner said the seven- or thirty-day decision period had long expired, causing hardship. Counsel for PuVVNL appeared; the petition was heard and disposed of by consent without a counter-affidavit.
